

INVITATION:
INTERACTIVE WEBINAR

Friday May 29, 2020
12:00 pm–1:30 pm (EST)

Exploring the frontiers of IVIG-associated hemolysis

Moderator

Dr. David Barnes, Medical Director, CSL Behring Canada Inc., Ottawa, ON

Speakers

Dr. Jacob Pendergrast,
BA, BSc (Med), MD

Associate Medical Director, Blood
Transfusion Service, University
Health Network, Toronto, ON

Dr. Donald Branch,
BSc, MT(ASCP)SBB, PhD

Research Scientist, Canadian Blood Services Centre of Innovation, Toronto, ON

Dr. Pendergrast currently holds a cross-appointment in the Department of Medical Oncology and Hematology as a Clinician Teacher, and has been seeing patients in the Toronto General Hospital's Red Blood Cell Disorders Clinic since 2004.

Dr. Branch currently serves as a Senior Scientist in the Centre for Innovation within CBS in Toronto. He has spent more than 34 years working in blood services in Canada.

Learning objectives

- Deepen our understanding of the incidence and risk-factors for IVIG-associated hemolysis.
- Explore new advances in the prevention and minimization of IVIG-associated hemolysis.

Agenda	12:00 pm – 1:30 pm (EST)	Speaker
Session 1	Uncovering the impact of IVIG-associated hemolysis in Canada	Dr. Jacob Pendergrast
Session 2	Prevention and minimization of IVIG-associated hemolysis	Dr. Donald Branch

Please RSVP by May 20th by visiting our registration page HERE

Biotherapies for Life™ CSL Behring

Biotherapies for life® is a registered trademark of CSL Behring LLC